

Study program close to research, project-oriented and practice-relevant!
In the Master's degree program in Cultural Geography, we explore socially produced life worlds of the present – cultural geographies

The MA Cultural Geography in Erlangen is research-oriented – you will be involved in ongoing research projects. We attach great importance to the fact that you study independently and in a project-oriented manner – and thus train competencies that qualify you for practice in all those professional fields in which it is important to work independently on complex bodies of knowledge and problem areas.

In the MA Cultural Geography you will deal with topics of high social relevance – for example:

At this point content of an external provider (source: YouTube) is integrated. When displaying, data may be transferred to third parties or cookies may be stored, therefore your consent is required.

You can find more information and the possibility to revoke your consent in our privacy policy.

At this point content of an external provider (source: YouTube) is integrated. When displaying, data may be transferred to third parties or cookies may be stored, therefore your consent is required.

You can find more information and the possibility to revoke your consent in our privacy policy.

At this point content of an external provider (source: YouTube) is integrated. When displaying, data may be transferred to third parties or cookies may be stored, therefore your consent is required.

You can find more information and the possibility to revoke your consent in our privacy policy.

The degree program comprises eight modules and the master's thesis.

The subject of geography operates at the interface of natural sciences, humanities and social sciences. Since you acquire a high level of methodological competence in the degree program Cultural Geography and also deal with neighboring disciplines, a wide range of professional activities are open to you. You can increase your professional opportunities by setting an appropriate focus in your studies.

Geographers work in urban, regional or transport planning, at energy supply companies or at market research companies. Other possible fields of work for cultural geographers are:

15.07.

31.01.

Prerequisite for the Master's degree program in Cultural Geography is a Bachelor's degree in Cultural Geography as first or second subject (at least 70 ECTS credits in Geography) or a related degree program (e.g. Social Sciences, Political Sciences, Sociology, Urban Planning/Regional Planning, Gymnasium Teacher Training in Geography, Economics). The degree must have been completed with a grade of "good" or better. However, students who do not achieve the qualification score of 2.3 (Uni-NC) have the chance to be admitted via a selection procedure.

Our Student Advice and Career Service (IBZ) is the central point of contact for all questions about studying and starting a degree programme. Our Student Service Centres and subject advisors support you in planning your studies.

Degree: Master of Arts (M.A.)

Duration of studies in semester: 4

Start of degree program: Summer semester, Winter semester

Study location: Erlangen

Number of students: 1-50

Subject group: Mathematics, Natural sciences, Language and Cultural Studies

Teaching language: completely in German

Admission Requirements: Qualification assessment

Admission requirements (first semester): Qualification assessment

Application deadline winter semester: 15.07.

Application deadline summer semester: 31.01.

Content-related admission requirements: Prerequisite for the Master's degree program in Cultural Geography is a Bachelor's degree in Cultural Geography as first or second subject (at least 70 ECTS credits in Geography) or a related degree program (e.g. Social Sciences, Political Sciences, Sociology, Urban Planning/Regional Planning, Gymnasium Teacher Training in Geography, Economics). The degree must have been completed with a grade of "good" or better. However, students who do not achieve the qualification score of 2.3 (Uni-NC) have the chance to be admitted via a selection procedure.